The objectives of the conference:

1. Presentation of research results and exchange of opinions on changes occurring in the state and the contemporary economy.
2. Dissemination of international scientific and research achievements in the field of the role of the state and the economy.
3. Integration of the research community, business practitioners, employees of state and local government institutions as well as politicians interested in contemporary challenges faced by the state and the economy.
4. Support for young residents of the Lubusz Voivodeship and their colleagues from all over the state (participants of the XXX Economic Knowledge Competition (OWE)) in deepening the knowledge related to the subject of the current edition of the competition on important problems of the state and the economy.

Thematic areas of the conference:

1. The role of the state in shaping socioeconomic order
2. Factors of growth and socioeconomic development
3. Conditions for sustainable development
4. Social aspects of state interventions
5. The regional and the local economy
6. Finances and the public economy
7. Entrepreneurship, competitiveness and innovations
8. Human capital in the economy
9. Interorganizational relationships, cooperation networks and economic clusters
10. Selected problems of the modern world economy
11. Challenges faced by the global economy
12. The PTE in the process of dissemination and development of the economic knowledge

The conference is of an interdisciplinary nature, therefore the invitation is addressed to economists and representatives of the management science, sociologists, lawyers, and representatives of other scientific disciplines as well as representatives of economic practice and of local and governmental authorities. The organizers also want to emphasize the educational dimension of the debate. Therefore, we look forward to broad participation of pupils, students and PhD students in the discussion.

Organizational information:

1. In order to register for the conference, please fill in the form on the website: <http://ptezg.pl/pl/konferencje>.
